

Flamenco Men II by Flamenco Aparicio Dance Company

Flamenco Men II, a fiery display of the masculine elegance and muscular dynamics of flamenco featuring Edwin Aparicio of the Flamenco Aparicio Dance Company and special guest artists from Spain.

GALA continues its ¡Viva los 40! anniversary season with its eleventh international Fuego Flamenco Festival that brings leading flamenco artists from Spain and the United States to Washington audiences. Praised for the presentation of stellar artists in an intimate tablaó setting, the festival will run from November 6 through November 15 at the GALA Theatre.

The first show of GALA's Fuego Flamenco: 11th Annual Flamenco Festival presents the Flamenco Aparicio Dance Company with their show Flamenco Men II. Edwin Aparicio, curator of GALA's Fuego Flamenco since its inception, will lead his spirited troupe of dancers, cantaores, and guitarists in an exploration of the energy and style of flamenco combined with elements of his Latin American heritage. With fiery footwork and muscular grace, Aparicio demonstrates his highly polished technique and innovative choreography.

Flamenco Men II features dancers Aparicio and renowned bailaores Domingo Ortega and Ivan Vargas from Spain. Other artists appearing are dancers Norberto Chamizo from Granada, Spain and Carlos Menchaca from San Antonio, Texas; singers Curro Cueto from Spain and Hector Marquez from El Salvador; and guitarist Ricardo Marlow and percussionist Behzad Habibzai from Washington, D.C. Each artist brings his unique talent to the richness of what it means to be a man in flamenco.
