

Goyescas by Enrique Granados

Honoring the centennial of its premiere and composer Granados' death, "Goyescas" a cloak-and-dagger story of mistaken betrayals spins with the passion of Spanish dance.

Inspired by Francisco de Goya's paintings, this opera-ballet is rarely seen in America. Paintings come to life in writer Elizabeth Pringle's new adaptation, coupled with Manuel de Falla's Seven Spanish Popular Songs.

GOYESCAS

- By Enrique Granados. Adapted by Elizabeth Pringle.
- Stage Director & Choreographer: Jaime Coronado.
- Conductor/Pianist: Carlos César Rodríguez.

Showtimes:

- On Wednesday, December 7, 2016 at 7:30 pm.
- On Saturday, December 10, 2016 at 8 pm.
- On Sunday, December 11, 2016 at 2:30 pm.
- On Saturday, December 17, 2016 at 8 pm.
- On Sunday, December 18, 2016 at 7 pm.

Related events

AUDIENCE DIALOGUE FOR GOYESCAS

- On Sunday, December 11, following the 2:30pm performance.

PERFORMING ARTS
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Wed, December 07–
Sun, December 18, 2016

Venue

GALA Hispanic Theatre, 3333 14th Street
Northwest, Washington, DC 20010

View map

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

The In Series, Opera & more

Credits

Presented by The In Series

DIRECTOR'S SALON FOR GOYESCAS

- On Monday, November 21 at 7pm.
- This fascinating conversation with the production's creators, designers, and performers will give insight into the process of bringing Goyescas to the stage. Enjoy an open rehearsal, followed by light refreshments and a chance to meet the artists.

GOYESQUITAS

- On Saturday, December 10 at 2:30 pm.
- On Saturday, December 17 at 2:30 pm.
- On Sunday, December 18 at 2:30 pm.

Take your kids to Spain for the holidays. This family opera invites music lovers of all ages to the culture, sights and sounds of Spain, on the wings of beloved song and traditional dances from this special family edition of Goyescas.