

La Oreja de Van Gogh in Washington, D.C.

The Spanish pop band from Donostia-San Sebastián plays at The Howard Theater.

La Oreja de Van Gogh, literally The Ear of Van Gogh, launched their first album Dile al Sol in 1998, which was followed in 2000 by their next and most celebrated album, El viaje de Copperpot. They quickly became one of the most popular Spanish bands in the early 2000s, spreading their major hits around the world. Their success was recognized by awards such as a Grammy Latino and two MTV awards.

After more than 20 years composing songs together, they are presenting their 7th album called El Planeta Imaginario, and will tour the U.S. from May 2017.
