

La Valentía by Alfredo Sanzol

Written by Spanish playwright Alfredo Sanzol, “La Valentía,” a humorous tale of family feuds and supernatural secrets, begins its month-long run at GALA Theatre.

LA VALENTÍA

- Written by Alfredo Sanzol and directed by José Zayas.
- Talk with playwright Alfredo Sanzol after the performance on Friday, April 21.
- In Spanish with English subtitles. Runtime: 2.5 hours.

This comedy finds sisters Trini and Guada battling over whether to sell their beloved family summer home that sits next to a bustling highway. With each increasingly absurd tactic they use to get their way, the sisters encounter mysterious visitors who provide comic twists and turns.

The language of the work goes from humor to nostalgia, from the scintillating gag to the unexpected flash of loneliness or melancholy.
