

Noche Iberoamericana 2015

Don't miss a night of food, music, art, and more as the Ibero-American Cultural Attaches Association (AACIA) presents Noche Iberoamericana.

Come taste the cuisines of Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador, and indulge in Portuguese natas, Colombian coffee and Ecuadorean chocolate. Accompanying the delicious food are acclaimed new world wines from Argentina and Chile, refreshing Dominican rum mojitos, traditional Peruvian pisco, and effervescent Spanish cava.

The musical program will include Rose Moraes, a Brazilian vocalist whose extensive studies in music have yielded a successful career in Brazil, the United States, and Europe; the Grupo Paraguay de Héctor Muñoz, a harp and guitar trio from the Washington, D.C. area, specializing in classical and popular music from Mexico, North, Central and South America; and Mariachi Los Amigos, founded in D.C. over 35 years ago and whose diverse repertoire has evolved to include everything from canciones rancheras, to romantic boleros, lively polkas, and hard-driving jaliscienses.

The Mexican Cultural Institute's exhibit Silver on Silver will also be on display. Featuring silver pieces, photos, and documents, the exhibit details the life and career of famed adventurer, entrepreneur and silver designer William Spratling, who transformed the small Mexican town of Taxco into a center of design. The evening will also include a raffle of Costa Rican artisan goods, Cuban cigars and the book Imprints between reality and invention from Uruguayan photographer Julio Testoni.

Participating Embassies: Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Paraguay, Peru, Portugal, Spain, Uruguay, and Venezuela.
