

Noche Iberoamericana 2017

Don't miss a night of food, music, art, and more as the Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) presents Noche Iberoamericana.

Come taste cuisine from Cuba, Paraguay, and Spain while sipping on Argentinian, Chilean and Uruguayan wine, Peruvian pisco sours, and a signature drink from El Salvador. Finish it all off with Portuguese Porto and chocolate and Uchuvas from Colombia.

The program will include a live musical presentation by the group Sound Impact, courtesy of the Embassy of Costa Rica and tango music from Argentina & Uruguay. The Mexican Cultural Institute's exhibit will also be on display. Two business class round trip tickets to Peru will be offered in a raffle.

This year, Noche Ibero-Americana will also offer a VIP ticket option that will include an Ecuadorean chocolate tasting, Brazilian appetizers, a signature rum cocktail from Guatemala, and a raffle for two roundtrip tickets to Mexico and a diplomatic greeting and tour of the Historic Mansion.

ABOUT AACIA

The Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) is a non-profit 501 (C) (3) association with the mission to promote, disseminate and preserve the heritage, culture and art of IberoAmerica in the Washington, D.C. area, working actively in building bridges between Latin America, Portugal and Spain, with the United States. This mission is achieved through cultural activities that bring together a varied audience and outreach media.

The cultural activities the Association has organized showcase the cultural values of IberoAmerica and the immense diversity that depicts the essence of our countries. In doing so, the events with most relevance have been the
