

Noche Iberoamericana 2018

The Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) presents “Noche Iberoamericana,” a night of food, music, art, and more.

Come taste cuisine from Argentina, Ecuador, and Honduras while sipping on Chilean, Portuguese and Uruguayan wine, Peruvian pisco sours, Spanish Cava and Cuban mojitos. Finish it all off with Colombian coffee and dessert.

The evening’s program will include live musical presentations courtesy of the Embassies of Panama and Venezuela. The Mexican Cultural Institute’s exhibit Constructing MEXICO68 will also be on display. Plus, two round trip tickets to Costa Rica will be offered in a raffle, and Guatemala will wrap up the night with a farewell souvenir.

This year, Noche Iberoamericana will also offer a VIP ticket option that will include all of the above in addition to Paraguayan appetizers, Chilean and Uruguayan wine, a signature cocktail from El Salvador, a raffle for two round trip tickets to Mexico, and a diplomatic greeting and tour of the Historic Mansion that houses the Cultural Institute of the Embassy of Mexico.

ABOUT AACIA

The Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) is a non-profit 501 (C) (3) association with the mission to promote, disseminate and preserve the heritage, culture and art of IberoAmerica in the Washington, D.C. area, working actively in building bridges between Latin America, Portugal and Spain, with the United States. This mission is achieved through cultural activities that bring together a varied audience and outreach media.

The cultural activities the Association has organized showcase the cultural values of IberoAmerica and the immense diversity that depicts the essence of our
