

The Life and Work of Miguel de Cervantes

The Library of Congress celebrates Spanish writer Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra with the lecture entitled “The Life and Work of Miguel de Cervantes” by professor Hernán Sánchez Martínez.

Professor Hernán Pinillos from the University of Maryland’s Department of Spanish and Portuguese will deliver a presentation exploring Don Quixote’s reception throughout the years, touching on some key items that have attracted readers over centuries: the meaning of the title; Cervantes’ stance in the “Prologue”; the birth of Don Quixote and the modern novel; and how all these notions have contributed to the myth of Don Quixote that continues to fascinate readers and critics today.

The talk will be followed by a unique display of books and rare treasures by Miguel de Cervantes from the Rare Book and Special Collections.

LITERATURE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Fri, October 21, 2016

Venue

Rosenwald Room, Thomas Jefferson
Building 10 First Street, SE Washington,
DC 20540

View map

Admission

Free

More information

Hispanic Reading Room of the Library of Congress.

Credits

Cosponsored by the Hispanic Division and the Rare Book and Special Collections of the Library of Congress