

The music of Vicente Martín y Soler

La Serenata, the performing group of The American Center for Puccini Studies, will perform pieces by Spanish opera composer Vicente Martín y Soler, during an operatic Happy Hour titled “Martinis with Martin.”

Some of the best-known works by Martín y Soler will be performed by La Serenata.

Vincente Martín y Soler (Valencia, 1754) was a composer of opera and ballet, who was often compared to his contemporary, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. A native of Spain, his career successfully traversed paths throughout Italy, Austria, Russia, and England, working for Ferdinand I of Naples, Josef II, Lorenzo Da Ponte, Catherine the Great, and the King’s Theatre. Light-hearted, yet poignant and sincere, his operas united the world’s most powerful realms with his global art.

MUSIC
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Thu, May 10, 2018

Venue

The Historic Somerset House, 1801 16th Street NW, Washington, DC 20009

View map

Admission

Free, RSVP required

More information

The American Center for Puccini Studies

Credits

Presented by The Dunstan Real Estate Group and The American Center for Puccini Studies